Subject: Right-to-Know request

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for contacting the Township. Your request for information associated with property addressed as 3829 E Hopewell Road was forwarded to me for response.

You have requested information related to Building Permits, code violations, or special assessment fees.

The house was constructed in 2003 and the associated building permit is attached. No other building permits have been issued for work at this site.

There are no code violations on record and the Township has no special assessment fees associated with this address.
