Subject: Right to Know Request

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for contacting the Township. Your request for information associated with property addressed as 4075 Huckleberry Drive was forwarded to me for response.

You have requested information related to Building Permits, code violations, or special assessment fees.

The unit was constructed in 2003 however we do not have this permit in our records. A building permit for a deck was issued in 2007 and is attached. No other building permits have been issued for work at this site. There are no code violations on record and the Township has no special assessment fees associated with this address.
