Good Afternoon,

The Franklin Building Department is responding to a records request made electronically on Friday, January 19 for information relating to the property at 46 Prospect Street. Specifically, any open/pending/expired permits, and fees/fines currently due, and/or any code violations.

After searching our records, there do not appear to be any open or expired permits for 46 Prospect Street. There also did not appear to be any code violations or fees of any kind due to the Building Department.

Please let us know if you have any additional questions.

Sincerely,

Tyler Paslaski
